LIVE Podcast Answers Legal Questions for Media Makers

Los Angeles Entertainment Attorney opens up the phone line and shares his knowledge.

BOSTON, MA - The DV Show is proud to announce its newest podcast, Law and Video with Attorney Gordon Firemark, scheduled to start on September 18, 2007 at 7 p.m. eastern time and run each week.

Law and Video with Attorney Gordon Firemark is the first live, call-in podcast to clear the air on legal issues for filmmakers and videographers who are looking for answers to questions related to starting a production business, copyright issues, contracts, intellectual property and distribution.

According to Brian Alves, host of The DV Show, "Our listening audience has been asking for this type of podcast for a long time. Content producers want to become informed on how to take the right steps and legally protect themselves before they pick up their equipment and go out on a shoot. This podcast will answer any legal question they have in an interactive, call-in format where they get to speak, one on one, with a practicing entertainment attorney who has real world experience."
